

LUNCH AND LEARN 2017-2018

First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham

1669 West Maple Road, Birmingham, MI 48009 248.644.2040

Bring your lunch and eat from 11:30am – 12:00pm, then enjoy an interesting program from 12:00 – 1:00pm. Dessert and beverages will be provided.

Everyone is Welcome!

September 21, 2017 - Steven Bancroft, M. Div.

History books have neglected some persons who made important contributions to American history. Come learn surprising, interesting details as Steven Bancroft, retired Dean of the Detroit Episcopal Cathedral, shares his interest in history.

October 19, 2017 - Marcie Brink-Chaney

Marcie Chaney has amazed us as she navigates life so capably as a blind person. She works to help people who are becoming blind learn coping strategies. She will inform us about her remarkable work.

November 16, 2017 - Stephanie Kummer

A dedicated corps of members of FPC go weekly to tutor children at Alcott Elementary School in Pontiac. Stephanie Kummer will describe their activities and regale us with human interest stories. The students have shown encouraging growth as our volunteers work closely with teachers.

December 14, 2017 - Annis Pratt, PH.D.

Under the skilled leadership of Annis Pratt, retired University of Wisconsin English Professor, The Socrates Café discussion group will be featured. Guests will participate and share their thoughts on a topic of interest. This activity is popular throughout the United States.

January 18, 2018 - Beverly Thomas

Beverly Thomas will give background information on the music of Rogers and Hammerstein and share samples of their wonderful music. Learn about the history which influenced their popular Broadway musicals.

(Continued on the other side)

Lunch and Learn 2017-2018

February 15, 2018 - Diane K. Bert, PH.D.

Claude Monet was an impressionist painter whose work was controversial in his time. Today he is considered one of the greatest artists of all time. Learn about his progression as a painter and his beautiful home and lily pond at Giverny.

March 15, 2018 - Doug Koschik

Doug Koschik, Baldwin Library Director, will talk about changes over the years, services now available, trends and what the future may bring including the role of technology. Recent renovations and proposed plans for the future renovations of the youth area will also be presented.

April 19, 2018 - Rochelle Roake

Creating a good environment for birds in backyards, environmental issues effecting birds, and details about Sandhill Cranes will be presented by bird expert and Audubon staff member Rochelle Roake.

May 17, 2018 - Eric Hausman

An insider's look at solar car development and engineering will be given by Eric Hausman, a recent graduate of the University of Michigan who was project manager for the award winning solar car team. He will share details of the trans Australia race.

New date!

June 14, 2018 - Rev. Dr. John Judson, D. Min.

Come and join Dr. Judson as he leads us through a visit to the Holy Land. This presentation will include not only a short video about the FPC Holy Land trip but his observations about life in and around Israel in 2018.

Come join us for this interesting series of programs. Please let us know you are coming by signing the sign-up sheet at FPC or calling the church office at 248.644.2040.

Everyone is welcome!